

Reflection

- What question do you tend to ask when you're completing a project? When it comes to the question, "Where do we go from here?", what's your initial response?
- How are themes of community and relationship present in this week's readings, especially in the midst of the Ten Commandments?
- What do you make of the relational interpretation ancient Jewish commentators offer between God and the Israelites when the Decalogue is spoken? How does this change the narrative for you?
- What does it mean to embrace our treasuredness, when for some of us, we awkwardly enter back into community with one another again?
